

Personal Information – Help with this Page

The Personal Information page provides Western with basic information concerning your identity and contact information. We use this information to provide you with a unique applicant account and to communicate with you.

Elements within the application marked with an asterisk (*) are required. These required elements are necessary to define your account within our information system.

Status in Canada

Your “Status in Canada” reflects your citizenship status in Canada should you attend Western.

If you are an international applicant, please select “Study Permit.” This status indicates that you will require a study permit, not that you necessarily already have a study permit.

If you are a Permanent Resident, please note that you will be expected to upload a scanned copy of either your signed Confirmation of Permanent Residence Letter or the front and back of your Permanent Resident Card to the Supplementary Documents page.
